

MOVIE DISCUSSION GUIDE:

- ▶ What was the first moment you knew you and your spouse wanted to marry one another?
- ▶ Rose asks Jed, "if you could ask God for anything and you knew He would say yes, what would you ask for?" What would you say?
- ▶ To marry Rose Jed starts to build her a chapel. How does that chapel represent their marriage?
- ▶ After marrying, Jed writes a song for Rose. Words are important. What words do you long to hear most from your spouse?
- ▶ What do you think is the root cause of Jed and Rose's argument involving their sexual relationship? How can this be avoided?
- ▶ Infidelity is the result of a series of bad decisions that start at the heart level. In order to not fall into temptation it's important to win early. In what ways did Jed lose early on? What should he have done differently?
- ▶ At what point would you call Jed and Shelby's relationship an affair?
- ▶ Looking back, Rose said that she had made mistakes and should have done things differently. What do you think those things were?
- ▶ "And when I surveyed all my hands had done. What I had toiled to achieve. Everything was meaningless. The chasing after the wind. Nothing was gained under the sun. There was a man alone. There was no end to his toil. Yet his eyes were not content with his wealth. Whoever loves money never has enough." What things do you have the most potential to chase after that at the end of the day, are meaningless?
